Addendum to Account Opening Disclosure – Truth-in-Savings Disclosure

For Business Accounts*

ProMedica Federal Credit Union is committed to following the law. Therefore since you have or will have a business account with us, we need to inform you of the following:

Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act of 2006- (UIGEA)

The Department of the Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board (Agencies) issued a joint final rule to implement the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act. The Act “prohibits any person engaged in the business of betting or wagering (as defined by the Act) from knowingly accepting payments in connection with the participation of another person in unlawful Internet gambling.”

You agree that your account(s) with ProMedica Federal Credit Union will not be used to make or facilitate any transaction(s) that are or might be construed to be illegal pursuant to applicable law, rule or ordinance, including but not limited to gambling as mentioned above (i.e. UIGEA). If such transactions are conducted, you are aware ProMedica Federal Credit Union may take actions such as restricting/blocking the transaction up to closing the account.
